| Article 63 | In the event of failure to send notice due to accidental omission to a certain person who has the right to obtain notice or where that person failed to receive notice, the meeting and resolutions passed at that meeting shall not become invalid as a result.  | Article 58 of Mandatory Provisions |
| Article 64 | Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at the general meeting may appoint one or more proxies (who need not be a shareholder of the Company) to attend and vote on his behalf. The proxy may exercise the following rights as authorized by the shareholder:-(1) to speak for the shareholder at the general meeting; and(2) to vote by way of poll.  | Article 59 of Mandatory Provisions |
| Article 65 | A shareholder shall use written form when entrusting an agent. The letter of proxy shall be signed by the principal or the agent entrusted by the principal in writing. If a principal is a corporation, the letter of proxy shall be affixed with the seal of the corporation or shall be signed by its director or officially entrusted officer or agent. The letter of proxy shall indicate the number of shares represented by an agent on behalf of the principal.   | Article 60 of Mandatory Provisions |
| Article 66 | A letter of proxy for voting shall be received and kept at the Company's premises or at another place designated in the notice of the meeting at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to commencement of the relevant meeting or before the designated time of voting. If a letter of proxy is signed by another party as authorised by the principal, a power of attorney to sign the letter of proxy or other document of authorisation shall be subject to notarisation. The notarised power of attorney or other authorisation document shall be kept with the letter of proxy at the Company's premises or other place as stipulated in the notice of meeting. | Article 61 of Mandatory Provisions |

If the principal is a corporation, its legal representative or person authorised by its board of directors or other decision-making department shall be the representative to attend general meeting of shareholder of the Company.

Where a shareholder is a recognised clearing house or its nominee(s) (hereinafter as "recognised clearing house") as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), it may authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s) at any general meeting of shareholders of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members provided that if more than one person is authorised, the authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorised. Such authorised person shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and power on behalf of the recognised clearing house which he or they represent as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 67	Any format of a letter of proxy issued by the board of directors used in appointing an agent on behalf of a shareholder shall allow the shareholder to freely choose to instruct that agent as to whether to make an affirmative or negative vote and to give instructions respectively on matters to be decided by vote at the meeting. A letter of proxy shall include a note that if a shareholder does not give instructions, the agent may vote according to his/her judgment.	Article 62 of Mandatory Provisions
Article 68	When the principal dies before voting, loses the capacity to act, withdraws a letter of proxy, withdraw the power of attorney to sign a letter of proxy or if the relevant shares have been assigned, and if the Company has not received written notice concerning this matter prior to commencement of the relevant meeting, a vote made by the shareholder's agent according to the letter of proxy shall remain valid.	Article 63 of Mandatory Provisions
Article 69	Agents shall show their identification documents in attending general meeting on behalf of shareholders. If corporate shareholders entrust legal representatives to attend the meetings, the legal representatives shall show their identification documents and a copy of authorised documents (except recognised clearing houses) from the board of directors of the corporation appointing the legal representatives or other authorities, or other authorised document approved by the Company.
Article 70	Resolutions of general meeting of shareholders shall be divided into ordinary and special resolutions.  An ordinary resolution at a general meeting shall require the approval of more than half of the shareholders that have voting rights (including their agents) who are present at the meeting in order to be valid.  A special resolution at a general meeting shall require the approval of more than two-thirds of the shareholders that have voting rights (including their agents) who are present at the meeting in order to be valid.	Article 64 of Mandatory Provisions
Article 71	When voting at a general meeting, a shareholder (including the agent of a shareholder) shall exercise voting rights according to the number of shares held. Each share held shall represent the equivalent of one voting right. Where any shareholder is, under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprises Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and/or any relevant laws, rules and regulations, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.	Article 65 of Mandatory Provisions
Article 72	Any vote of shareholders at a general meeting must be taken by way of poll, except where the chairman of the meeting may, in good faith, allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands, in which case, every Member present in person (or being a corporation, is presented by a duly authorised representative), or by proxy shall have one vote, provided that where more than one proxy is appointed by a member which is a clearing house (or its nominee(s)), each such proxy shall have one vote on a show of hands. For the purpose of this Articles of Association, procedural and administrative matters refer to those that ( i ) are not on the agenda of the general meeting or in any supplementary circular that may be issued by the Company to its members; and ( ii ) relate to the duties of the chairman to maintain the orderly conduct of the meeting and/or allow the business of the meeting to be properly and effectively dealt with, whilst allowing all members a reasonable opportunity to express their views.	Article 66 of Mandatory Provisions

When a show of hands is allowed, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll may be demanded:

- (1) by the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) by at least two members entitled to vote present in person or by proxy;
- (3) by one or more members present in person (including proxies) representing 10 percent or more of all shares carrying the rights to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been passed by the results of the voting by a show of hands, which would then be included in the minutes of the meeting as the conclusive evidence of fact, without the proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who makes such demand.

The Company must announce the results of the poll in the manner prescribed by the rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 73	If it has been requested that a decision to elect the chairman of the meeting or to stop the meeting be made through a poll, the poll shall be promptly conducted. In relation to other matters to be decided by poll as requested, the chairman shall decide when the poll shall be conducted. The meeting may then be continued and other matters discussed. The results of the vote shall be regarded as a resolution passed by the meeting.	Article 67 of Mandatory Provisions
Article 74	When voting by poll, a shareholder (including the agent of a shareholder) with two (2) or more voting rights need not cast all of their voting rights as affirmative or negative votes.	Article 68 of Mandatory Provisions
